Hello there!

I just learned that the free version of the strengths test does not come with descriptions of your strengths (well, you can get them but it's $40!).

So, attached is a list of the official StrengthsFinder strengths and their descriptions. I've noted the name of the equivalent strength from the free version next to each one. You'll notice that not every StrengthsFinder has a High 5 equivalent. This is because High 5 only chooses out of 20 different strengths while the official StrengthsFinder chooses out of 35.

Hope you find this helpful-- there is also scripture associated with each strength at the end of the packet.

See you Sunday!
