The Talk, Vermont

Sponsored by

The Vermont Racial Justice Alliance

Mount Mansfield Community Television and

Good Shepherd Lutheran Church

Financially supported by the Vermont Humanities Council and viewers like you.

Hosted by Good Shepherd Lutheran Church

273 Vermont Route 15, Jericho, Vermont, at 7:00 PM

Moderated by the Reverend Dr. Arnold Isidore Thomas, Pastor

When Black parents refer to The Talk it concerns the vital conversation they must have with their children if they're going to survive in a predominantly White, racially hostile environment. I imagine similar conversations occur among all families of color and oppressed communities. However, White Americans must also learn to have The Talk with each other and their children as to how they will learn to live in an increasingly multiracial, multicultural nation and world where they no longer comprise the majority. The Talk, Vermont invites you into a wide range of topics and conversations concerning bias and bigotry in our state and the ways people of all races, ethnicities, sexual orientations, and gender identities may overcome them.

First Church & College Street Youth are participating in the 2022 CROP HUNGER WALK

1 in 4 people globally is food insecure.

2.2 billion people live without access to safe drinking water.

258 million children and youth still do not attend school.

TOGETHER we can create a world where there's #enough4all.

Our Burlington UCC Youth Group is teaming up with the South Hero youth group to raise funds and awareness for the 2022 CROP Hunger Walk, and we're inviting you to join us!

CROP Hunger Walks are community-led interfaith events that raise funds to end hunger locally AND around the world. Your participation impacts individuals and families in more than 35 countries. In many developing nations, people could walk up to six miles a day to get food and water. One in nine people worldwide lack access to clean water and a healthy diet. We walk to show solidarity and to bring awareness while raising funds for permanent change.

You can join us on the walk on October 16, 1pm at the Congregational Church of South Hero and/or sponsor us on our walk. To do so, please visit this website and click "Join the Team" to sign up for the walk, or click
